

Bassett Announces First Quarter Wholesale Orders and Backlog

March 10, 2021 2:00 PM EST

BASSETT, Va., March 10, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Bassett Furniture Industries, Inc. (Nasdaq: BSET) announced today that wholesale orders for the quarter ended February 27, 2021 were $83.0 million a 44% increase over the prior year period. In addition, the Company announced that the wholesale shipping backlog was $67.5 million a 362% increase over the backlog reported at February 29, 2020 and a 23% increase over the backlog at November 28, 2020.

The Company also announced that it is in lease negotiations for a 123,000 square foot manufacturing facility in Newton, North Carolina to increase its upholstery manufacturing capacity. It hopes to finalize a lease by the end of March with manufacturing to commence by June 2021. "We are excited at the prospect of adding this additional location so close to our existing upholstery manufacturing platform," said Rob Spilman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "If negotiations are successful, this will provide us with additional capacity to begin to reduce the above backlog to a more manageable level."
