March ___, 2008

To Our Fellow Stockholders:

Costa Brava Partnership III L.P. is the holder of approximately 5% of the outstanding common stock of Bassett Furniture Industries, Incorporated (“Bassett” or the “Company”). On January 18, 2008, we delivered a letter to Bassett announcing our intent to nominate seven candidates, David S. Brody, Neil Chelo, Eugene I. Davis, Seth W. Hamot, Kent F. Heyman, Peter Hirsch and Andrew R. Siegel (collectively, the “Costa Brava Nominees”), to Bassett’s board of directors for election at Bassett’s 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. We believe that each of the Costa Brava Nominees is highly qualified to serve as a director of the Company and has the business experience and desire to move Bassett forward in the right direction.

Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, we urge you to vote for the election of the seven Costa Brava Nominees. You may vote your shares by proxy over the Internet, as described in the Proxy Statement, or you may request a paper copy of the proxy card by mail, and following receipt, you may sign, date and mail the proxy card in the envelope provided. Instructions regarding these methods of voting are contained on the proxy card and in the Proxy Statement.

We urge you not to sign or return any proxy card sent to you by Bassett. If you have previously signed a proxy card sent to you by Bassett, you can still revoke that proxy simply by voting for the Costa Brava Nominees.

Remember, if you hold your Bassett shares with a brokerage firm or bank, only they can exercise voting rights with respect to your shares, and only upon receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, it is critical that you promptly contact the person responsible for your account and give instructions to vote for the election of the candidates nominated by us.

Thank you,

Seth W. Hamot
President, Roark, Rearden & Hamot, LLC,

We are soliciting proxies from the stockholders of Bassett Furniture Industries, Incorporated (“Bassett” or the “Company”) to be used at the Company’s 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, to be held at the Company’s headquarters located at 3525 Fairystone Park Highway, Bassett, Virginia 24055, on Tuesday, April 15, 2008 at 9:00 a.m., local time, including any adjournments, postponements or continuations thereof (the “Annual Meeting”). We are seeking your support for the following:

1. To elect the nominees of Costa Brava Partnership III L.P. (“Costa Brava”), David S. Brody, Neil Chelo, Eugene I. Davis, Seth W. Hamot, Kent F. Heyman, Peter Hirsch and Andrew R. Siegel (each a “Costa Brava Nominee” and collectively, the “Costa Brava Nominees”), to the Board of Directors of the Company, to serve until the next annual meeting and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. WE RECOMMEND A VOTE FOR THE COSTA BRAVA NOMINEES.
2. To authorize the Company, if any of the Costa Brava Nominees are elected to the Board of Directors, to reimburse the costs and expenses of Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees in undertaking this solicitation and related litigation described herein. WE RECOMMEND A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL.

The Company’s definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 10, 2008 (the “Bassett Proxy Statement”) indicated that the following proposals will also be considered at the Annual Meeting:

3. A proposal to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending November 29, 2008.
4. Any and all other matters that may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

We are utilizing the new rule allowing soliciting persons to furnish proxy materials over the Internet. On March ____, 2008, we mailed to Bassett stockholders a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials containing instructions on how to access our Proxy Statement. If you received a Notice by mail and would like to receive a printed copy of our proxy materials, you should follow the instructions for requesting such materials included in the Notice.

You may vote by proxy:

- By Internet—You can vote over the internet at www.proxyvote.com using the control number appearing on the Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials sent to you.
- By Mail—To receive a paper proxy card, you must request a copy from us. Following receipt, you may sign, date and mail the proxy card to us in the envelope provided.

THIS SOLICITATION IS BEING MADE BY COSTA BRAVA, ROARK, REARDEN & HAMOT, LLC, ROARK, REARDEN & HAMOT CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC AND THE COSTA BRAVA NOMINEES AND NOT ON BEHALF OF BASSETT OR ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

If you previously submitted a WHITE proxy card or voted for the nominees recommended by Bassett's existing Board of Directors, you may revoke that proxy card and change your vote. We strongly urge you to REVOKE any WHITE proxy card you may have returned to Bassett and to vote for the Costa Brava Nominees.

Any proxy granted pursuant to this solicitation or otherwise may be revoked by the person granting the proxy at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting. Proxies may be revoked by (i) delivering a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy, (ii) duly executing and delivering a later dated written proxy relating to the same shares, (iii) granting a subsequent proxy electronically until 11:59 pm Eastern Time on the day prior to the date of the Annual Meeting or (iv) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy). To be effective, any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be mailed or delivered to, and received by, InvestorCom, Inc., 51 Locust Avenue, 3rd floor, New Canaan, CT 06840 or Bassett's corporate secretary before the taking of votes at the Annual Meeting. If you hold your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee holder, only they can revoke your proxy on your behalf. In the event that a stockholder casts more than one proxy vote, electronically or otherwise, the latest vote received will be the vote that will be counted.

If you have any questions or require any assistance in voting by proxy, please call our proxy solicitor, InvestorCom, Inc., at 866-973-9325 (toll free) or 203-972-9300 (collect).

As of March ___, 2008, the approximate date on which a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials is being sent to stockholders of Bassett, the Costa Brava Nominees were the beneficial owners of 605,923 shares of common stock, $5.00 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), of Bassett. This amount represents approximately 5.1% of the outstanding Common Stock as of March 3, 2008, as disclosed in the Bassett Proxy Statement.

Bassett announced that the record date for determining those stockholders who are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is March 3, 2008. Bassett's principal executive offices are located at 3525 Fairystone Park Highway, Bassett, Virginia 24055.

Background for Our Solicitation

At the end of December 2007, we tried to contact Robert Spilman, Jr., Bassett's Chief Executive Officer and President, and Paul Fulton, Bassett's Chairman of the Board, to discuss the Costa Brava Nominees and strategies for maximizing shareholder value. Neither Mr. Spilman nor Mr. Fulton returned our calls.

We believe Bassett's board of directors should put a plan in place to reduce the capital needs of Bassett's furniture business and to maximize the value of Bassett's investment and real estate assets. To that end, on January 18, 2008, we delivered a letter to Bassett announcing our intent to nominate the Costa Brava Nominees to Bassett's board of directors for election at the Annual Meeting.

On January 29, 2008, Bassett filed a complaint in the Circuit Court of the County of Henry, Virginia in an attempt to prevent the Costa Brava Nominees from standing for election to Bassett's board of directors. If Bassett is successful, you will not be able to exercise your right to vote for alternative directors. Bassett's complaint, however, was based on a technicality which, even if appropriate at the time, has since been remedied.

Basset's complaint alleges that our nomination letter was defective because we were not a "holder of record" at the time we sent the letter. This is because, like most shareholders of public companies, we held our shares with a brokerage firm rather than holding an actual stock certificate. We now hold a stock certificate for some of our shares, but we think you will agree that whether a shareholder holds his or her shares with a brokerage firm or in certificated form is a distinction without a difference. Nevertheless, Bassett is trying to use this technicality to shut us out of the nomination process.

Bassett's complaint named as defendants Costa Brava, Roark, Rearden & Hamot Capital Management, LLC, Roark Rearden & Hamot, LLC and Costa Brava Nominee Seth W. Hamot (together, the "Defendants"). The Defendants answered the complaint and filed affirmative defenses on February 22, 2008. Costa Brava Nominee Andrew R. Siegel is an affiliate of the Defendants.

As of the date of the mailing of the Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials, [the Court has not resolved the issues raised by the respective parties, and no further motion seeking a ruling on the issues raised in the complaint has been filed.]

Due to the uncertainty surrounding the timing and ultimate disposition of the litigation, we determined to proceed with this solicitation to give Bassett's stockholders a choice.

Participants in Solicitation of Proxies

The following persons are or may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation by Costa Brava with respect to the Annual Meeting, as the term "participant" is defined in the proxy rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (each, a "Participant" and collectively, the "Participants"): Costa Brava Partnership III L.P., Roark, Rearden & Hamot, LLC, its general partner, Roark, Rearden & Hamot Capital Management, LLC, its investment manager, and each of the Costa Brava Nominees, namely David S. Brody, Neil Chelo, Eugene I. Davis, Seth W. Hamot, Kent F. Heyman, Peter Hirsch and Andrew R. Siegel.

The principal business of Costa Brava Partnership III L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, is to make investments in, buy, sell, hold, pledge and assign securities. Mr. Seth W. Hamot is the president of Roark, Rearden & Hamot, LLC, which is the general partner of Costa Brava. Roark, Rearden & Hamot Capital Management, LLC is the investment manager to Costa Brava. Information regarding the Costa Brava Nominees may be found below under "Election of Directors – The Costa Brava Nominees." The business addresses and ownership of Bassett securities with respect to each of the Participants is provided in Exhibit A hereto.

Except as set forth in this Proxy Statement, none of the Participants (i) is, or was within the past year, a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any persons with respect to any securities of Bassett, including, but not limited to joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees against loss or guarantee of profit, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies, or (ii) has any arrangement or understanding with any person (A) with respect to any future employment by Bassett or its affiliates or (B) with respect to any future transactions to which Bassett or any of its affiliates may be a party.

Proposal One - Election of Directors

The Costa Brava Nominees

Each Costa Brava Nominee has consented in writing to being named as a nominee for election as a director in the proxy materials to be used in connection with the Annual Meeting and, if elected, has consented to serving as a director. If for any reason any Costa Brava Nominee is unable or declines to serve, the proxies solicited by Costa Brava will be voted for any substitute nominee who shall be designated by Costa Brava to fill the vacancy.

Each Costa Brava Nominee has furnished Costa Brava with information concerning his principal occupation for the preceding five-year period, business addresses and other matters. None of the Costa Brava Nominees has ever served as an officer, director or employee of Bassett.

Except as disclosed in this Proxy Statement, (a) there are no arrangements or understandings between any Costa Brava Nominee and any other person pursuant to which such Costa Brava Nominee was selected as a nominee to serve as a director of Bassett or with respect to any future employment by Bassett or any future transactions to which Bassett or any of its affiliates will or may be a party and (b) no Costa Brava Nominee shall receive any form of compensation for serving in the capacity of director of Bassett, other than the compensation currently in place for outside directors of Bassett, all subject to required approvals and applicable law.

The Company's Bylaws prescribe the procedures that a stockholder must follow to nominate directors for election at an annual meeting or to bring other business before an annual meeting (other than matters that have been included in the Company's proxy statement for such meeting). The Chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person as a director or any other proposal by a stockholder not made in compliance with these procedures. The following summary of these procedures is qualified by reference to the Company's Bylaws, a copy of which may be obtained, without charge, upon written request to Jay R. Hervey, Secretary, Bassett Furniture Industries, Incorporated, Post Office Box 626, Bassett, Virginia 24055.

A stockholder who desires to nominate a director for election at an annual meeting must give timely written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Company by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, at the address shown above. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received not later than January 15, 2009, for nominations to be made at the 2009 Annual Meeting. The notice must contain the information specified in the Bylaws regarding the stockholder giving the notice and each person whom the stockholder wishes to nominate for election as a director. The notice must be accompanied by the written consent of each proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Company, if elected.

A stockholder who desires to bring any other business before an annual meeting (other than matters that have been included in the Company's proxy statement for such meeting) must give timely written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Company by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, at the address shown above. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received not later than November 6, 2008 for business to be acted upon at the 2009 Annual Meeting. The notice must contain the information specified in the Bylaws regarding the stockholder giving the notice and the business proposed to be brought before the meeting.

With respect to stockholder proposals not included in the Company's proxy statement for the 2009 Annual Meeting, the persons named in the Board of Directors' proxy for such meeting will be entitled to exercise the discretionary voting power conferred by such proxy under the circumstances specified in Rule 14a-4(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including with respect to proposals received by the Company after November 6, 2008.

The information set forth above regarding the procedures for submitting stockholder nominations and proposals for consideration at the Company's 2009 annual meeting of stockholders is based on information contained in the Bassett Proxy Statement. The incorporation of this information in this Proxy Statement should not be construed as an admission by us that such procedures are legal, valid or binding.

Voting Procedures

According to the Bassett Proxy Statement, as of the record date, March 3, 2008, Bassett had 11,812,740 shares of Common Stock outstanding.

You may vote by proxy:

- By Internet—You may vote over the internet at www.proxyvote.com using the control number appearing on the Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials sent to you.
- By Mail—To receive a paper proxy card, you must request a copy from us. Following receipt, you may sign, date and mail the proxy card to us in the envelope provided.

If you vote by proxy, the individuals named on the proxy card (the “proxy holders”) will vote your shares in the manner you indicate. You may specify whether your shares should be voted FOR ALL of the Costa Brava Nominees, to withhold authority for all or to withhold authority for any individual Costa Brava Nominee and whether your shares should be voted for or against each of the other proposals. If you sign and return the proxy card without indicating your instructions, your shares will be voted as follows:

- FOR the election of the Costa Brava Nominees as directors;
- FOR authorizing the Company, if any of the Costa Brava Nominees are elected to the Board of Directors, to reimburse the costs and expenses of Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees in undertaking this solicitation and related litigation described in the Proxy Statement; and
- FOR the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending November 29, 2008.

With respect to other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, or at any postponement or adjournment thereof, the proxy holders will vote the shares they have been authorized to represent in accordance with their discretion. To the extent that other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting that do not fall within the proxy holders’ voting discretion, the proxy holders may not vote the shares they have been authorized to represent on such matters. To the extent that approval of such matters requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote thereon that are present at the Annual Meeting, the effect of shares not voted would be the same as a vote against the proposal.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee should provide you with information regarding the methods by which you can direct your broker or nominee to vote your shares. Your broker or nominee might send you, for example, a voting instruction card to be completed, signed, dated and returned to your broker or nominee by a date in advance of the meeting, and/or information on how to communicate your voting instructions to your broker or nominee by telephone or over the Internet.

We encourage you to vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting. In this way, your shares will be voted if you are unable to attend the Annual Meeting.

If you have any questions or require any assistance in voting by proxy, please call our proxy solicitor, InvestorCom, Inc., at 866-973-9325 (toll free) or 203-972-9300 (collect).

Quorum Requirement

Shares are counted as present at the Annual Meeting if the stockholder either:

- is present and votes in person at the Annual Meeting, or
- has properly voted by proxy.

According to Bassett’s publicly available by-laws, a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, must be present at the meeting in order to hold the Annual Meeting and conduct business.

Consequences of Not Returning Your Proxy

If your shares are held in your name, you must vote by proxy (or attend the Annual Meeting in person) in order to vote on the proposals.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held through a broker or other nominee, we encourage you to provide instructions to your brokerage firm or nominee to vote your shares by proxy for the Costa Brava Nominees. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the Annual Meeting.

Required Vote

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. If a quorum is present, directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast and action on other matters submitted to the stockholders will be approved if the votes cast in favor of the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the Company's Articles of Incorporation or the Virginia Stock Corporation Act requires a greater number of votes. An abstention or an election by a stockholder not to vote on the action because of the failure to receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares will not be considered a vote cast. Shares for which the holder has elected to abstain or to withhold the proxies' authority to vote (including broker non-votes) on a matter will count toward a quorum but will have no effect on the action taken with respect to such matter.

Appraisal Rights

None of the corporate actions identified in this Proxy Statement or the Bassett Proxy Statement will trigger any appraisal rights for Bassett stockholders under the Virginia Stock Corporation Act.

Solicitation

These proxies are being solicited by Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees. Copies of solicitation material will be furnished without charge to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their name shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. As part of the solicitation, the Participants may communicate with stockholders of Bassett by mail, courier services, Internet, advertising, telephone, facsimile or in person. Other than as disclosed in this Proxy Statement, Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees will receive no additional compensation for their solicitation efforts. In addition, Costa Brava has retained InvestorCom, Inc. ("InvestorCom") to solicit proxies, and Costa Brava will pay a fee for those services, which is estimated to be up to $85,000. InvestorCom anticipates that it will use approximately persons in its solicitation efforts.

Costa Brava will initially bear the entire cost of this solicitation. Although no precise estimate can be made at the present time, we currently estimate that the total expenditures relating to this proxy solicitation incurred by Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees will be approximately $300,000, of which approximately $ has been spent to date, including approximately $ relating to litigation in which Costa Brava is a party as described under "Background for Our Solicitation" and $100,000 paid to our nominees in connection with their agreement to serve as Costa Brava Nominees. In Proposal Two of this Proxy Statement, Costa Brava is seeking approval of the Company's stockholders to authorize the Company, if any of the Costa Brava Nominees are elected to the Board of Directors, to reimburse all expenses of Costa Brava and the Costa Brava Nominees incurred in connection with the nomination of the Costa Brava Nominees and this solicitation.
